The Renaissance Commons project is a new construction, 189-unit multifamily rental project being developed by REACH CDC, located in Kenton neighborhood in the Interstate Corridor Urban Renewal Area, located near the intersection of Argyle and Interstate Avenue. The Project includes a variety of unit sizes, ranging from studios to three-bedroom units with sizes varying from 375 square feet to 1,055 square feet. Renaissance Commons consist of two buildings with numerous shared amenities and lobby entrance. There is ground floor community space, office spaces, a fitness room, community pantry, bike rooms as well as an outdoor play area and small lounge areas. The project is located across from the Kenton Park and walking distance to the Kenton/N Denver MAX line.

The Project is subject to the City's N/NE Preference Policy. All units will be rented to households earning 60% AMI or less, with ten units rented to those earning 30% AMI or less.

The project came about through a 2016 TriMet issued solicitation and in partnership with PHB, REACH was selected to redevelop the approximately two-acre site. PHB's funding leverages more than $35 million of other public and private financing contributed by Barings Multifamily, Metro, REACH, BES, and Oregon Housing and Community Services.
