

PORTLAND POLICE BUREAU STRATEGIC SERVICES DIVISION

SUMMARY OF TRAFFIC CRASH & ENFORCEMENT TRENDS THROUGH APRIL 25TH, 2020

- Traffic crash calls remain at lower than usual levels
- For the last three weeks, Traffic Division has issued about twice as many warnings and citations as this time last year
- Activity suggesting risky driving behavior is still at elevated levels, particularly violations for high rates of speed
- For the last two weeks, the proportion of speeding violations remained static at 60% of total violation charges, more than double the proportion of these types of violations reported last year
- Citations issued for any speeding violations in excess of 11 MPH decreased about 11% last week, but are still high overall
- Seventeen citations for speeding 100 MPH in excess of the posted limit were issued between April 12th and April 25th
- DUII arrests have declined overall compared to the pre-closure date, but arrests during evening hours between 6 PM – 12 AM continue to be the period during which most DUII arrests occur
