Better Blocks

6:10

Better Blocks has proven to be a key mover in getting the City of Portland (PBOT, PDC) as well as local business groups and neighborhood organizations to create inviting and interactive places that challenge the notion that streets are only for cars. Their efforts have already led to significant changes in several streetscapes. Ryan Hashagen, as one of the key forces behind Better Blocks, will discuss the organizations prior and upcoming work on Better Naito, Better Broadway, Better Burnside and an upcoming event called Oregon Walkways: Connecting the Park Blocks. Ryan will discuss ways in which the BAC can lend support to these transformative efforts.
