

BICYCLE ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEETING

THE NEXT MONTHLY MEETING OF THE CITY OF PORTLAND CITIZENS' BICYCLE ADVISORY COMMITTEE WILL BE HELD IN CITY HALL (1221 SW 4TH AVENUE), LOVEJOY ROOM

6 p.m. March 13, 2018

The Public is Welcome!

Introductions/Announcements

6:00

Southwest in Motion (30 minutes)

6:10

Nick Falbo, senior planner with Portland's Bureau of Transportation (PBOT) will present the committee with early thoughts about planning this project. The Southwest In Motion project (SWIM) will develop an implementation strategy for walking and biking investments in Southwest Portland. Staff will share the goals of the project, and discuss the approach to a first-pass prioritization. Staff seeks to learn the interests of the BAC regarding what we should consider as we perform our analysis to rank projects.

Enhanced Transit Corridors Plan (40 minutes)

6:40

April Bertelsen, senior planner with PBOT, will present the just-released ETC draft plan for committee feedback.

ODOT Value Pricing Project Update and COP Framework for Consideration (20 minutes)

7:20

Last November the City of Portland passed a resolution asking PBOT to work with ODOT to implement their value pricing project with a focus on demand management, climate, equity and mitigating diversion. ODOT has completed the first round of analysis and is now considering specific scenarios. PBOT staff will provide an update on the process and the framework PBOT is using to provide feedback. Staff will be seeking BAC feedback to inform the City's continued participation in this process, as well as further consideration of pricing as a tool for increasing mobility and creating a safer and more equitable transportation system.

Project funding (20 minutes)

7:40

In the last regional flexible funds round Metro allocated $2 million to be used across the region for "project-readiness". Zef Wagner, planner with PBOT, will discuss how Portland is considering using its $663,000 share and potential implications associated with that.

Adjourn

8:00
