Fixing Our Streets 2

6:10

Mark Lear with PBOT will describe the process and preliminary projects for Fixing Our Streets 2, which is intended to renew the temporary ten cent per gallon gas tax enacted in 2016 for Fixing Our Streets. That program is slated to raise more than $64 million over the 2016-2020 period for maintenance and safety projects.

Andrew Hoan, Executive Director of the Portland Business Alliance

6:50

Andrew Hoan is the president and CEO of the Portland Business Alliance. Prior to this, he served as president and CEO of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce and at the Office of the Brooklyn Borough President, where he directed capital spending and economic development policy. Through AmeriCorps, Andrew helped indigent New Yorkers seek free civil legal help and developed corporate programming for the largest provider of homeless services in New York City, Volunteers of America. He serves on Mayor Ted Wheeler's Council of Economic Advisors, Metro Council President Lynn Peterson's President's Council, All Hands Raised board of directors, Oregon Business & Industry board of directors, and Multnomah County's Preschool for All Taskforce, and serves as co-chair of Commissioner JoAnn Hardesty's Small Business Committee, treasurer of the Portland Economic Investment Corporation's board of directors, and professional advisor for Travel Portland. Andrew will present to the BAC about the Portland Business Alliance's perspective on the appropriate mix of transportation options in the Downtown/Central City area and discuss transportation goals for the area with the Committee.
