

New Citizen Oversight Group Up and Running

The work of the new nine-member Portland Utility Board (PUB) has begun, providing oversight of the city's two public utilities: the Portland Water Bureau and Bureau of Environmental Services.

At the recommendation of an independent Blue Ribbon Commission, this new body advises the City Council on the rates, budgets, financial plans, and spending of the two bureaus. The nine community members who make up this board have volunteered to serve in this important role. This board takes the place of both the Portland Utility Review Board and the Budget Advisory Committee.

The PUB and City Council are committed to hearing from citizens about the budgets of these two bureaus. To stay in the know about fiscal year 2016-17 budget development – including opportunities to weigh in – visit www.portlandoregon.gov/cbo/pub.

Protecting Your Financial Data

To keep your financial data secure, the City of Portland is required to upgrade financial data security measures.

As part of these mandatory upgrades, the Bureau of Environmental Services and the Portland Water Bureau must temporarily discontinue automatic payments with customers.

We are continually looking for ways to provide the best service to our customers. We regret this inconvenience and appreciate your patience during this transition. Once security upgrades are complete, customers will be able to re-enroll in auto pay.

Ways to Pay:

- Pay online at www.portlandoregon.gov/utilitybill.
- Mail a check to PO Box 4216, Portland, OR 97208-4216.
- Call a Customer Service representative at 503-823-7770 Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. – 5 p.m.
- Make a payment in person at 1120 S.W. Fifth Ave.

Get Prepared for Winter

The Portland Water Bureau is ready to respond to weather-related main breaks around the clock. During the winter, rain, ice and snow can cause problems with water pipes and you can help us by being our eyes and ears on the ground. Please call the Emergency Line when you see a main break or another water system emergency.

For information about protecting your home's plumbing this winter, visit www.portlandoregon.gov/water/winter.
