

APPROVED INCOME DOCUMENTATION

Gross Income is based on the total of all income of the household, before deductions. Gross income includes money, wages, tips, and salaries before deductions. Please return documentation of gross income for the last 30 days with your application.

ZERO INCOME: Please complete enclosed Declaration of Income Form

Here are examples of what is considered Income:

- Wage stubs, or statement from employer specifying gross wages for the prior thirty day period.
- Receipts from self-employed business – profit loss statement
- Public Assistance
- Social Security Payments – Benefit award letter or annual statement
- Unemployment benefits
- Strike benefits
- Workers compensation monthly benefits
- Veteran's benefits
- Monthly payments from sale of property, house, or car
- Training stipends (Foster Grandparents, and senior Companions Excluded)
- Regular Foster Parent grants or payments
- Alimony
- Child Support
- Military family allotments
- Pensions and Annuities
- TANF – Temporary assistance for needy families
- Work study money
- Rental Income
- Adoption Assistance